

Thang Pham Visitation Volleyball Camp

June 15 – 19, 2009

“The mission of the Thanh Pham Volleyball camp is to provide high quality instruction in a positive environment while getting you in shape for the high school or middle school season. We want this to be the best camp you’ve ever attended.”

- Thanh Pham
Head Women’s Volleyball Coach
University of St. Thomas

Camp Staff

All the sessions will be lead by Thanh Pham.

Thanh Pham will be entering his sixth year at St. Thomas with a record of 130-38. He has coached five All-Americans , two national players of the week and thirteen All-Conference selections. He has also coached at Northern Lights, M1, Augsburg College, as well as many other camps across the country.

Last season, he was named MIAC Coach of the Year after his team won the regular season and playoff titles going an impressive 13-0 against other Div. III Minnesota schools. He was also named Region Coach of the Year after the Tommies made it to the Sweet Sixteen before losing in 5 to the national runner up. The Tommie finished 9th in the country last season.

Other coaches will include current and past St. Thomas players.

Camp Description:

High Intensity Skills Camp: This three day camp is open to campers who will be 9-12 grade duing the 2009/2010 school year. Campers are divided into training groups by age, skill level and experience to provide the optimal learning environment. We will cover the same skills on all courts: passing, blocking, serving, hitting, and defensive moves.

We will also use game-like scenarios to reinforce skills. Campers can expect to learn new techniques while playing and practicing in a positive and fun atmosphere.
